Dear Mr. Casey:

On behalf of the Foreign Policy Association, I am

Published by Praeger for FPA, the book has drawn together the main contours of contemporary U.S. foreign policy - concepts, history, process and problems - in a way that students and citizens-at-large can grasp. We believe it is a unique effort to explain foreign policy in terms readily comprehensible to the general public, which is FPA's constituency.

We would welcome your opinion of the book and hope you and your staff will find that it contributes to greater understanding of the subject, consistent with FPA's non-partisan mandate.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

President
